Itinerary Jerusalem & bethlehem from tel aviv

In the morning, starting at 06:40 AM, you will be picked up from your hotel or nearest point and begin the full-day tour of the holy city of Jerusalem and Belem.

You will start by going up to the Mount of Olives, an exceptional viewpoint from which you can admire the Old City in all its splendor. You will continue to the Tomb of King David, located in a Templar building that also houses the Cenacle, the place where Jesus celebrated the Last Supper.

You will stop at Dormition Abbey to admire its incredible zodiac mosaic, one of the best preserved in Jerusalem.

Already in the Armenian quarter, you will discover the legends that are hidden in the tower and citadel of David.

You will continue touring the Jewish quarter where you will visit the Wailing Wall, the only preserved remains of the ancient Temple of Jerusalem that was destroyed by the Romans. You will also see on the back of the wall, the Dome of the Rock, a holy place for Islam.

You will tour the Christian quarter and you will approach the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, built on the point where Jesus was crucified, according to the scriptures. In addition, you will follow his footprints on the path he walked towards the cross along the Via Dolorosa.

Afterward, you will continue the tour going to Manger Square, where the three wise men worshiped Christ, according to the scriptures. You will continue visiting the Basilica of the Nativity, where the grotto in which Jesus was born is located. Then you will go to the Mosque of Omar and its majestic minaret.

You will continue walking through the historic center down Star Street, which is the street with the most shops and craft workshops in the city.

Before returning to Jerusalem, you will make one last stop in the Shepherds' Field, the hillside where the sanctuary that commemorates the first announcement of the birth of Christ is located.

After this tour, you will be taken back to the pick-up point in Tel Aviv after enjoying this wonderful excursion.

Greca Tip: One of the traditions is to leave a paper with your wishes in the cracks of the wailing wall.
